

Name _____

SORT 32 Unaccented Final Syllables (le/el/il/al)

Sort your words according to the headings given – using the key words as examples. Alphabetize each column when you write them down – do not rewrite the guide words

-le	-el	-al	-il
cattle	model	final	pencil
			Oddball

Generalizing the pattern: All of the words in this list have the same ending sound but it is spelled differently. All of the words also accent the first syllable of the word.

Fill in the blank column with a word from your list that matches the definition given.

Something you measure in math class with a protractor
Something that is breakable and should be handled with care
The opposite of good and kind
When you want two of something you might say, "Give me a ____ of those."
Something older than Mrs. Hall or evidence of a living thing from another geological age usually found in rock or sediment a spiritual being often thought to have wings and wear a white robe

Complete the word scramble below.

Complete a blind sort with a partner (that is where they pull the words out of your baggie and you spell them below)

Partner's name _____

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

